Journey to the Musical Forest

Kelson Lucas

I stared off into starry space,
A single sound caught my ear,
Like the first raindrop falling,
Before the storm came near.

Followed by such a brilliant light,
I thought I'd lost my sight,
Vision clear and feelings alit,
My starry sky replaced by a wondrous sight,
A magic place where music takes flight.

Notes in miraculous rainbows,
Scales like far off rivers,
Flowing lyrics paint the heavens,
The ground rumbles with unformed verses.

The world flashes white,
Vision blurs and senses take flight,
Returned again to jeweled sky,

Sound fading,
Form lost,
Music gone,

What a night.
